

Stephane Lamvohee

Group Brand & Content Manager

Stephane is a branding and marketing specialist with over 10 years of experience acting as brand guardian for several local and international brands, across various industries.

As Group Brand & Content Manager, he leads the Group's brand, creativity, and content with a view to authentically establish a purpose driven brand across Africa, working, and collaborating with internal and external cross-functional partners to ensure the brand philosophy is reflected in everything we do.

Prior to joining CSI Energy Group in 2021, Stephane served as Head Strategist: Advertising, Digital & PR at Magna Carta Reputation Management Consultants Mauritius, part of Africa's largest and most respected reputational management consultancies and Ketchum's Exclusive affiliation in Africa, managing a portfolio of local and international clients in diverse industries, ranging from Corporate, FMCG, Finance and Hospitality.

Holder of a Double Major Bachelor in Commerce, Management and Marketing, from Curtin University (Australia), he has deep expertise in marketing and communication, market research, media buying, sales, public relations, social media, digital marketing, and events.

Based in Mauritius, Stephane has a curious mind that constantly challenges the status quo with new ideas, and is always eager to learn. He is a photography and travel passionate, mixing both to tell visual stories.
